MERSTHAM (Blue)

Good afternoon to you all. To-day we have an attractive fixture again MERSTHAM F.C. and to their Players, Officials and Supporters we extend a very hearty welcome to Woking Park. Merstham who are at present 14th in the league have already beaten us 3-1 away, but to-day should weehope, provide a different story, for we are fielding a much stronger side, in fact only five of to-days played at Merstham; also with five games without defeat things at last seem to be going our way.

Last Saturday proved to be a rest day for the 'Field, the 1st XI being with out a game, and the 2nd XI and Youth matches being called owing to unfit grounds. Let's hope that to-days games are not spoiled by the weather

Our only change to-day is Richard Hill who makes his first 1st debut since his return to Westfield, in place of Johnnie North.
